

MOST PERFECT MADE.
A pure Cream of Tartar Powder,
Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant.

40 Years the Standard.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1867.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

R. O. Willis is at home.
New wall paper at T. F. Sawyer's.

Get your stationery from Bahage's.
A fresh line of cakes just in—Su's's.

Don't miss our great shirt sale—Sulter's.

Dr. J. M. Clayton, of Louisville, is in the city.

The "Texas" has put the work train
on again.

Tobacco came in pretty lively last

Thursday.

The news is an excellent medium for advertisers.

Good wall paper 2½ cents single roll—

T. F. Sawyer.

The last few days have almost been spring weather.

Leave your orders with us for Irish bread—Sulter's.

Miss Ida Weissenberger returned home

Saturday evening.

R. S. Carter went to Louisville Sunday,

with his cattle.

J. M. Clark, of Tell City, Ind., spent

Sunday in the city.

Jack Moorman was returned home for a stay of a few weeks.

Two prominent young people, of this city, are to wed soon.

James B. Pace, Jr., returned from Louisville, Sunday night.

John Wanfield attended the grand ball

at Rome, Saturday night.

Fresh oysters for sale cheaper than ever known to—Martin's.

Ladies, call this week to see our spring

line of picture molding—Sulter's.

Cliff Haddock, of Clinton Mills went to Louisville, Monday, with tobacco.

A seventy five cent shirt for 35 cents—a 50 cent shirt for 25 cents—Sulter's.

The pay roll, at Victoria, miles,

amounted to nearly $2000, last month.

Claas and Wm. Arnold and Allie Eliot, of Utility, were in the city Monday.

Oreany, the great railroad dog, took a trip over to Hardinsburg branch last week.

Miss Linnie DeHaff after a most pleasant

stay in Louisville, has returned home.

Jno. E. Keith after a series of illness

for a month or more is able to get out again.

Dr. S. B. Atkinson was called to Webster, last week, to see his father, who was quits ill.

Drugs, medicines and other goods sold at Martin's for rock-bottom price. Come and see us.

Mrs. E. A. Kishen went to Union

Star Saturday to spend a few days at her old home.

The street in front of Pace's warehouse is in a horrid condition and should have attention.

Big's daughter in men's white unlaunched shirts—reduced from $1.00 to 50 cents—Su's's.

James B. Pace, Jr., is talking of holding a pigmy carnival in his warehouse

in the near future.

Rev. Donald Grant delivered a very impressive sermon, Sunday night, at the Methodist church.

Holiday compositions composed by

Charles G. Martin, Practical Prescription Draught.

Charles Reiman, the general operator

at Lexington, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. W. O. Allen.

Misses Allene Murray and Bebe

Hamilton are in Hardinsburg with Mr.

and Mrs. Morris Beard.

"Boys" unlaunched shirts worth 40

cents to cut a lot they are for 15 cents this week—Su's's.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Frymire, of Union

Star were in the city last week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Haynes.

The Niles' will be here Saturday, for Montgomery, Ala., where he has accepted a position with Mr. F. P. Haag.

Miss Florence Lewis and Master Edson

Popham spent Sunday in Hardinsburg, with her sister, Mrs. Tula Mattingly.

Do you want a permanent position with good pay? If so, write to The Hawks' Nurser Co., Rochester, N. Y.

The Breckinridge Company shipped

last week a lump of cannel coal weighing 1000 pounds to Liverpool, England.

Misses Mary and Anna Phillips, of New York, will be here Saturday evening.

Morris Ward, of Hardinsburg, arrived

from Owensboro, Saturday evening.

Mr. Geo. Jolley accompanied him over, that evening.

Mr. Frank Lyons and Mrs. Alvin

Skinner, who were in the city, Monday, shopping, and were the guests of Mrs. Farns Fraas.

W. L. Burch, the well known distiller of fine brandy, at Rhodella, was in the city Friday evening from O'rensebo,

where he had been on business.

Chas. V. Sims went to Louisville, Monday, Feb. 4, to the wife of Jeff D.

Hunt, a fine boy.

Logan C. Murray, of Louisville, was in the city, last week, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bentley, of Louisburg, came up Sunday evening, returning that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wendelkin and little daughter Veille, spent Sunday at Hardinsburg.

E. B. Shuckett, of Hill Grove, and

John Astin of Edlingham, were in town

last week, on business.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in town Friday morning.

The sale of J. H. Trent (deceased) last

Saturday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Clinton is visiting her many friends in the country this week.

Miss Fountain and Harvey Dittos, of

Bronxville, were here Monday.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in

town Friday morning.

The sale of J. H. Trent (deceased) last

Saturday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Clinton is visiting her many

friends in the country this week.

Miss Fountain and Harvey Dittos, of

Bronxville, were here Monday.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in

town Friday morning.

The sale of J. H. Trent (deceased) last

Saturday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Clinton is visiting her many

friends in the country this week.

Miss Fountain and Harvey Dittos, of

Bronxville, were here Monday.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in

town Friday morning.

The sale of J. H. Trent (deceased) last

Saturday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Clinton is visiting her many

friends in the country this week.

Miss Fountain and Harvey Dittos, of

Bronxville, were here Monday.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in

town Friday morning.

The sale of J. H. Trent (deceased) last

Saturday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Clinton is visiting her many

friends in the country this week.

Miss Fountain and Harvey Dittos, of

Bronxville, were here Monday.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in

town Friday morning.

The sale of J. H. Trent (deceased) last

Saturday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Clinton is visiting her many

friends in the country this week.

Miss Fountain and Harvey Dittos, of

Bronxville, were here Monday.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in

town Friday morning.

The sale of J. H. Trent (deceased) last

Saturday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Clinton is visiting her many

friends in the country this week.

Miss Fountain and Harvey Dittos, of

Bronxville, were here Monday.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in

town Friday morning.

The sale of J. H. Trent (deceased) last

Saturday, was largely attended.

Mrs. Annie Clinton is visiting her many

friends in the country this week.

Miss Fountain and Harvey Dittos, of

Bronxville, were here Monday.

If you have any items of news that

you would like for your friend to know,

please hand or send in.

I look like Cloverport will have a

regular service every day, that the brick

plants will be open.

By George, the colored porter and

carrier of the News, for several years, is

dying with consumption at Anderson, Ind.

Mr. Dick Smith, of Cedar Flat, was in

